

Bill Kazmaier

William Kazmaier hails from Burlington, Wisconsin. He was born December 30, 1953 and is a former professional wrestler, a world champion strongman, and a world champion power lifter. Bill set numerous strongman world records and power lifting records during the 1970s and the 1980s. He also holds 3 World's Strongest Man titles and 2 IPF or International Power Lifting Federation World Championships! These competitions made Kazmaier famous for his claim to be the "strongest man who ever lived" and he regularly performed versatile and spectacular feats of strength. William is largely considered to be one of the all-time greatest competitors as far as strength competitions go.

Bill Kazmaier has teamed up with Arctic Physical Therapy and Rehab and Arctic Chiropractic as our official spokesperson. Not only a strength legend, he is also a successful motivational speaker who travels all over the State of Alaska where he speaks to a variety of communities. These talks focus on areas of Health and Wellness and feature his philosophy of Conceive, Believe and Achieve. His powerful speech is highly motivational and has a lasting impact on the community. In order to learn more about Bill and his speech and to have him speak in your community, contact Sarah Goff for more information at synergyservicesak@gmail.com.